County GOP Chairman Predicts Nixon Victory

Mrs. Maxine Wendell of Grant, County Chairman for the Committee for the Re-election of the President, today predicted that President Nixon will win in Perkins County with a good margin in the November 7 election.

She also forecast a strong state and national victory for President Nixon, Senator Curtis, and Republican Congressmen David Martin, Charles Thone and John Y. McCollister.

The County Chairman said President Nixon, "has proved to be a real leader in both the international and domestic fields and will be returned to office for four more years."

George B. Cook of Lincoln,

State Chairman for the Re-elect the President Committee, reported that Nebraskans have put together the strongest volunteer committee on behalf of President Nixon in the history of the state. He urged Nixon supporters to make every effort to get out a big vote on Nov. 7 to insure an overwhelming victory in Nebraska for the President.

Allen Beermann of Lincoln, Nebraska Secretary of State, is predicting that over 600,000 registered voters will go to the polls in November election. He said this would be the second largest migration to the polls in the history of Nebraska and was indicative of the interest in the November 7 election.
