Sir:

In response to a letter from Hon. Thomas S. Butler, relative thereto, you are advised that a blank application for widow's pension is enclosed for your mother's use. An application for the accrued pension due the soldier at the time of his death is not necessary, as that money will be paid at the time of the allowance of the widow's pension, if such pension should be granted.

Very respectfully,

My dear Mr. Butler

I am impressed by your good nature by asking you at your leisure, to see if there is anything we done by my mother in her application for widow's pension.

Some time ago I requested some matter which the department wished as additional evidence of father's death etc, and had heard nothing since, and I suppose to the volume of work which the department handles.

If you will at your convenience be kind enough to look into the matter I would consider it a great favor.

Thanking you for interest already taken I remain

I have yours of the 12th addressée to Clara Virginia Bartleson stating that certain evidence had not been furnished regarding the death, marriage and as to divorce.

I am enclosing the required information which I hope is in shape to complete the amount of information desired by the Department.

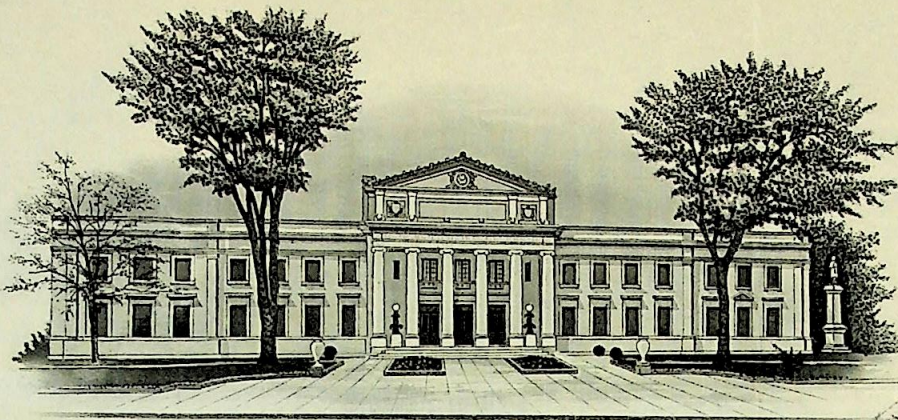

My parents had been married almost fifty years, and in this neighborhood would be difficult to find any old residents who would be familiar with the early lives of the deceased and wife. This is the reason why myself and brother appear in the papers.

My dear Mr. Butler:-

Some years ago you very kindly interested yourself in the obtaining of a pension for my father, Dr. Henry C. Bartleson of Lansdowne, with whom I believe you were slightly acquainted.

I regret to state that he passed away on the 29th of January, and in order to look after my mother's interests think it advisable to call upon you for a little more assistance. I understand that she is entitled to a widow's allowance which would come in very handy for her at her age.
